SAPD Concludes Landfill Search for Missing Baby Gabriel

On Friday, March 12th, San Antonio Police Chief William McManus held a news conference describing the conclusion of the landfill search for missing baby, Gabriel Johnson.

- On February 18th, we began Phase II in the search for 8-month-old baby Gabriel.
- On Thursday, March 11th, we completed 16 days of searching.
- We searched through 4260 tons of debris from the target area.
- We found no evidence of a Homicide.
- This case will remain an active investigation with the Missing Persons Unit continuing to follow-up on any leads into the disappearance of baby Gabriel.
- The Homicide Unit will continue to investigate any information indicating foul play.
- We continue to urge anyone with information on this case to call 1-800-THE-LOST.
- Accomplishing this search was achieved with the help of both the private sector and the law enforcement community. Below is a list of partners:
